Session 2: 12:00 – 2:30

THROUGH THE EYES OF A POET

Exploring Poetry through Reading, Writing, and Art for students entering grades 2-8

Students will explore the enticing world of poetry as readers, writers and artists. They will learn about many important poets, poetry elements, and the use of creativity involved in the genre of poetry. They will learn to appreciate and interpret poetry through imagery, figurative language, sound devices, and style as they read, write, and respond to varied poetry selections through discussion and original artwork, as assessed by the NJASK state assessment.

Students staying for both morning and afternoon sessions will have a supervised time (11:30-12:00) for a bag lunch provided by parent.
